Serial and Persistent Complaints Policy

The Headteacher and staff deal with specific complaints as part of their day-to-day management of the school in accordance with the School's Complaints Procedure. The majority of complaints are handled in an informal manner and are resolved quickly, sensitively and to the satisfaction of the complainant. However, there are occasions when complainants behave in an unreasonable manner when raising and/or pursuing concerns. The consequences are that the actions of the complainants begin to impact negatively on the day-to-day running of the school and directly or indirectly the overall wellbeing of staff, children and parents in the school community. In these exceptional circumstances the school may take action in accordance with this policy.

The aims of this policy are to:

- Uphold the standards of courtesy and reasonableness that should characterise all communication between the school and persons who wish to express a concern or pursue a complaint;
- Support the well-being of children, staff and everyone else who has legitimate interest in the work of the school, including governors and parents;
- Deal fairly with those who make persistent or vexatious complaints and those who harass members of staff in school.
- Our Schools are committed to dealing with complaints fairly and impartially and providing a high quality and transparent process to anyone who wishes to raise a complaint or concern. However we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and take action to protect our staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

PARENTS EXPECTATIONS OF THE SCHOOL

Parents/carers/members of the public who raise either informal concerns or formal complaints with the school can expect the school to:

- Communicate to parents/carers in writing:
 - how and when problems can be raised with the school;
 - the existence of the school's complaints procedure, and
 - the existence of this guidance;
- Respond within a reasonable time;
- Be available for consultation within reasonable time limits bearing in mind the needs of the pupils within the school and the nature of the complaint;
- Respond with courtesy and respect;
- Attempt to resolve problems using reasonable means in line with the school's Complaints Procedure and other relevant policies.
- Keep complainants informed of progress towards a resolution of the issues raised.

THE SCHOOL'S EXPECTATIONS OF PARENTS/CARERS/MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC

The school expect parents/carers/members of the public who wish to raise problems with the school to:

- Treat all school staff with courtesy and respect;
- Respect the needs and well-being of pupils and staff in the school;
- Avoid any use, or threatened use, of violence to people or property;
- Avoid any aggression or verbal abuse;
- Recognise the time constraints under which members of staff in schools work and allow the school a reasonable time to respond;
- Recognise that resolving a specific problem can sometimes take some time;

- And in the case of a complaint, follow the School's Complaints Procedure.

WHO IS A PERSISTENT COMPLAINANT?

A persistent complainant is a parent/carer or member of the public who complains about issues, either formally or informally, or frequently raises issues that the complainant considers to be within the remit of the school, and whose behaviour is unreasonable. Such behaviour may be characterised by:

- Actions which are obsessive, persistent, harassing, prolific, repetitious;
- Prolific correspondence or excessive e-mail or telephone contact about a concern or complaint;
- An insistence upon pursuing unsubstantial complaints and/or unrealistic or unreasonable outcomes;
- An insistence upon pursuing complaints in an unreasonable manner;
- An insistence on only dealing with a specific member of staff on all occasions irrespective of the issue and the level of delegation in the school to deal with such matters;
- An insistence upon repeatedly pursuing a complaint when the outcome is not satisfactory to the complainant but cannot be changed.

Harassment is the unreasonable pursuit of such actions as in a way that they:

- Appear to be targeted over a significant period of time on one or more members of school staff and/or
- Cause ongoing distress to individual member(s) of school staff and/or
- Have a significant adverse effect on the whole/parts of the school community including individuals
- Are pursued in a manner which can be perceived as intimidating and oppressive by the recipient. This could include situations where persistent demands and criticisms, whilst not particularly taxing or serious when viewed in isolation, have a cumulative effect over time of undermining confidence, well-being and health.

Unreasonable behaviour is behaviour which hinders consideration of complaints because of the frequency and/or nature of the complainant's contact with the school for example;

- Refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance.
- Refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process.
- Refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of the complaints procedure.
- Insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the complaints procedure or with good practice.
- Introduces trivial or irrelevant information which they expect to be taken into account and commented on.
- Raises large numbers of detailed or irrelevant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales.
- Makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced in the process.
- Changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds.
- Repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed).
- Refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the school's complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the Department for Education.
- Seeks an unrealistic outcome.
- Makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy and complicated contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with.

- Uses threats to intimidate.
- Uses abusive, offensive or discriminatory language or violence.
- Knowingly provides falsified information.
- Publishes unacceptable information on social media or other public forums.
- Complainants should try to limit their communication with the school that relates to their complaint, while the complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text), as it could delay the outcome being reached.

THE SCHOOL'S ACTIONS IN CASES OF PERSISTENT OR VEXATIOUS COMPLAINTS OR HARASSMENT

In the first instance the school will verbally inform the complainant that his / her behaviour is considered to be becoming unreasonable / unacceptable and, if it is not modified, action may be taken. Whenever possible, the Headteacher or Chair of Governors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally they decide to apply an 'unreasonable' designation. This will be confirmed in writing (Letter 1). If the behaviour is not modified the school may take some or all of the following actions as necessary, having regard to the nature of the complainant's behaviour and the effect of this on the school community:

- Inform the complainant in writing that his/her behaviour is now considered by the school to be unreasonable/unacceptable and, therefore, to fall under the terms of this guidance (Letter 2);
- Inform the complainant that all meetings with a member of staff will be conducted with a second person present and that notes of meetings may be taken in the interests of all parties (Letter 2);
- Inform the complainant that, except in emergencies, all routine communication with the complainant to the school should be by letter only (Letter 2);
- In the case of physical, or verbal aggression take advice from RBG Legal Services and consider warning the complainant about being banned from the school site; or proceed straight to a temporary ban;
- Consider taking advice from RBG Legal Services on pursuing a case under Anti-Harassment legislation;
- For complainants who excessively contact the School causing a significant level of disruption, the school specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. We will consider taking advice from RBG Legal Services about putting in place a specific procedure for dealing with complaints from the complainant, i.e. the complainant will not be able to deal directly with the Headteacher but only with a third person to be identified by the governing board of the school, who will investigate, determine whether or not the concern / complaint is reasonable or vexatious and then advise the Headteacher accordingly.

If a complainant's persistent complaining/harassing behaviour is modified and is then resumed at a later date within a reasonable period of time, the school may resume the process identified above at an appropriate level. In these circumstances advice may be sought from RBG Legal Services of the LA. In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, the school will immediately inform the police and communicate our actions in writing. This may include barring an individual from School.

The School will review as appropriate, and at a minimum once in a school year, any sanctions applied in the context of this policy. This policy has been drafted in accordance with the Guidance issued by the Department for Education entitled 'Advice on School Security' issued in December 2012. If you do not agree with a decision and you wish to further challenge the decision you will need to consider seeking your own independent legal advice.
